

LARRY MERCIER

Larry Mercier is the President of Knowledge Engineering and Associates (KEA), a Talent Management (TM) consulting company. Prior to that, he served a combined 30 years in the civil service, active duty and Coast Guard Reserves.

Mercier retired from OPM in 2005, where he completed his federal service as the Founder and Director the of Go Learn program, a fee for service, eGovernment provider that assists federal agencies implement Learning Management System (LMS) infrastructure and talent management systems.

Mercier has developed learning strategies, TM strategies and many other learning and talent services for 14 of the 15 cabinet level departments and many of the major independent agencies.

Want to Learn More? Contact Larry.Mercier@KEAPro.com; 202-536-4670

